Capital Awaits Latest Summit Note From Moscow

U. S. FORCES IN LEBANON NOW 13,000

By EDWIN A. SHANKE

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The United States swelled its armed force in Lebanon to more than 13,000 men over the weekend.

The Middle East battleground enjoyed a respite from major shooting but the politicians began bickering over who should represent Lebanon at a summit conference.

Twenty-two hundred American soldiers landed in Beirut Sunday and 75 tanks and 226 other vehicles awaited unloading.

Most of the new arrivals were men of a tank battalion, plus engineers, radiomen, a medical unit and food inspectors.

There were indications that more American troops and equipment were on the way although the Lebanese rebellion has settled into an uneasy unofficial truce since the election of Gen. Fuad Shihab as president. In the only explanation of the U.S. reinforcements, Adm. James L. Holloway, the American commander in the area, said they were part of the total originally ordered to Lebanon last month and had not been diverted.

Both Beirut and the northern port of Lebanon, the two chief centers of fighting, were almost completely quiet over the weekend.

Rebel leader Kamal Jumblatt was reported darning his 2,000-man private army in the mountains southeast of Beirut. But the rebel leaders in Tripoli and Beirut kept up their demands that President Camille Chamoun "step down" in favor of Shihab immediately and that the U.S. forces withdraw. The Beirut Tripoli rebels were told to hold their fire but to hang on to their weapons and positions. Chamoun's term does not expire until Sept. 23, and some politicians maintained he should represent the government at any summit conference on the Middle East held before then.

However, Saeb Salam, the rebel chief in Beirut, and other rebel leaders threatened a renewal of (Turn to Page Twelve)

Bandit With Shaky Hand Robs Couple In Oakmont Home

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A polite bandit with a shaky gun hand routed a suburban Oakmont couple out of bed early today and robbed them of $200 in cash. He ignored jewelry and several valuable art objects.

The gunman, described as tall and slender and about 60, entered the luxurious home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kerr in an exclusive section by smashing a downstairs window.

Kerr is a director of the McGraw-Hill Co. and president of the Pennsylvania Transformer Division at Canonsburg, Pa.

Mrs. Kerr said the bandit first entered her bedroom and ordered her to take him to her husband. She said he turned his back while she donned a robe.

Kerr said he gave the man $200 from his wallet. After saying "Thanks, pal," the bandit casually walked down the stairs and out the door, Kerr said.

Work Rushed on the Mideast Proposals for U. N. Meeting

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States rushed work today on Mideast proposals for a United Nations summit conference while awaiting word from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev as to whether he will attend.

A new Khrushchev message to President Eisenhower was expected momentarily after the Soviet Premier's return to Moscow Sunday night from a surprise meeting with Chinese Communist leader Mao Tse-tung in Peking. His secret trip, announced as he flew home, caught Western officials by surprise. They speculated that his talks with Mao could have a vital effect on Khrushchev's summit conference proposals from here on.

A communique issued by the two Communist chieftains threw

Young Divorcee Beaten to Death By Rejected Lover

ELIZABETH, N. J., (AP)—An attractive 29-year-old divorcee was beaten to death over the weekend, police said, when she refused to marry the man she had been living with for five years.

Police found the partially clad body of Mrs. Della Cornish on a bed at the home of Charles W. Wheeler, 36, a truck mechanic. Wheeler was quoted as telling authorities that he took Mrs. Cornish to a cocktail lounge Saturday night and that while there she danced with another man.

"You've got to quit this running around, and we've got to get married," Wheeler allegedly said to the mother of four children after they arrived home. Her reply, according to police, was: "I wouldn't marry you, now or never."

Wheeler said that then "the roof caved in . . . I beat her about the face. After beating her, I called police. That's all there was to it. I realized she was badly hurt when I called police."

The officer who answered Wheeler's call said Wheeler told him, "I've just killed my wife." Wheeler was charged with murder and was to be arraigned today before Magistrate John L. McGuire.

Mrs. Cornish's children, ranging in age from 5 to 16, were believed to be staying with their grandmother, Mrs. Edith N. Layman, in Connellsville, Pa., where she formerly lived.

Police said the couple wired $20 to Connellsville Saturday afternoon to help pay for the children's keep.

IKK VETOES BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today vetoed a bill carrying 6½ billion dollars for 17 federal agencies. He said over 500 million dollars for the Civil Service retirement fund was not needed.

little light on the nature of any major decisions reached.

While demanding a summit meeting to deal with Middle East problems, it gave no hint as to which, if either, of two alternatives Khrushchev would accept. One is French Premier de Gaulle's latest proposal for a five power session outside the United Nations. The other involves proposals of President Eisenhower and Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for a special session with the 11-nation U.N. Security Council about Aug. 12. U.S. officials commented that the Soviet-Red Chinese declaration followed the same tough line Khrushchev has used repeatedly during the past two weeks. It demanded immediate withdrawal of United States and British troops (Turn to Page Twelve)

Senate Program May Delay Adjournment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas today tabbed increases in Social Security benefits and other controversial legislation for Senate action before Congress adjourns.

His program raised doubts that Congress can quit within the next two weeks. Other congressional leaders have talked of adjournment by Aug. 15 and possibly by next weekend.

Johnson said he would insist that senators stay here until they finish work, and would ask the Senate to meet early and stay late daily to advance its legislative program.

As to possible adjournment, Johnson said: "We're in the last days of this session but I'm not willing to say we'll be here two weeks, or four weeks."

Eight Lose Lives When Truck Rolls Off Coast Ferry

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—An attendant yelled "Jump! Jump!" in vain while a fruit picker's station wagon with faulty brakes rolled off a ferry boat into the Sacramento River, drowning eight persons.

The vehicle floated nearly 50 feet before the screams stopped as it sank at Princeton, 50 miles north of Sacramento, Saturday.

Dead were Fortino Aguilar, 38; Mrs. Christina Aguilar, 32, his wife; Mrs. Santos Garcia, 50, Mrs. Aguilar's mother; and five Aguilar children.

Skiddivers found the vehicle upside down in 25 feet of water and recovered the bodies.

ALLEGHENY ACCIDENT

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—An Allegheny County man was killed and three persons were injured Sunday when their auto ran off a curve in Route 38 at Cherry Valley and tore through an ice cream store.

Killed was the driver, Harry W. Wissner, 21, of Glassport. Treated at Butler County Memorial Hospital were Thomas Chutay; Walter Spotneck, 23; and Joseph Tarle, 21; all of Glassport. No one was in the store at the time of the crash.

P. O. Department Runs Out of Stamps

WASHINGTON (AP)—Blushingly, the U.S. Post Office Department had an announcement to make today.

The run on stamps touched off by the new higher rates caused the department's main station here to run right out of one and four-cent stamps over the weekend.

A spokesman said the situation was expected to be remedied with all deliberate speed.

Syrian Border Is Sealed Off Report In Amman States

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Jordan authorities said today the United Arab Republic had sealed off its Syrian border with Jordan apparently at Soviet insistence.

Officials said Jordan quickly retaliated by sealing off their side of the frontier.

Official sources in Damascus confirmed that Jordan had closed its border and was turning back all cars, trucks and trains moving between Damascus and Amman. The Syrians claimed they had no advance warning of the move.

King Hussein's regime broke off diplomatic relations with the U.A.R. about 10 days ago after the latter recognized the new Iraqi government.

Informants here also said the British-American airlift of British forces in Jordan had been stopped. They said Israel withdrew permission for the planes to fly over her territory after receiving a stiff Soviet note objecting to the flights which were the British main source of supply.

Political sources in Jerusalem said, however, the Israeli government had called on the British to stop flying over their soil on Friday before the Soviet note was received.

Some Western diplomats speculated the next move might be for Egypt to close the Suez Canal to ships bound to and from Jordan.

If the canal were closed, this would mean ships from the West would have to skirt Africa to reach Jordan's only port of Akaba.

Predict Arbitration Of State Store Demand

HARRISBURG (AP)—A dispute between the State Liquor Control Board and its employees' union over wages will soon be arbitrated. The union, claiming to represent 92 per cent of the 3,200 liquor store employees, Saturday named Paul Baker of Philadelphia as its representative to the panel. Patrick E. Kerwin, chairman of the liquor board, said it would name its representative later. It has 15 days.

The union-board representatives will then select a neutral third party to sit on the three-member panel.

Fire-Blistered Man Is Related To Hoffa Aide

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—A fire-blistered man who staggered into a hospital here today was identified as the nephew of a Detroit aide to Teamsters Union Chief Jimmy Hoffa.

He is Frank Kierdorf, 56, nephew of Herman Kierdorf, who was brought last week before the Senate Rackets Committee investigating reported tieups between mobsters and unionists in Detroit. Frank Kierdorf is a former business agent for a Laundry Workers Union at Flint, Mich.

Integration Case Is Before Appeals Court

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A case which could have a direct bearing on the speed of racial integration in Southern public schools went to the seven judges of the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals today.

The case is an appeal challenging a 2½-year postponement of integration at Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., where eight Negro students finished last term after a tense year of mixed attendance under a federal court-approved plan of gradual integration.

Paratroopers were sent to the school by President Eisenhower to maintain order.

The delay, sought by the Little Rock School Board, was granted by Federal Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley.

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People is appealing. The NAACP originally objected to the gradual plan on the grounds it was too slow but now is trying to salvage any sort of immediate integration at Central High and keep integration moving in the South.

The appeals court has dealt with the Little Rock situation three times, always ruling in favor of gradual integration.

The school board holds that the appeals court must decide whether a school district is responsible for enforcing the district laws.

Its brief cites instances of violence which occurred at Central the past school year and declares that the board should not be forced to go ahead with integration under the "insuperable handicaps" which have been thrust upon it.

Attorneys for the school board said it is not trying to evade the court-ordered desegregation but is just seeking an adjustment in its time schedule.

The NAACP's brief is based on three points: 1. That community opposition—even though it involves violence—does not furnish sufficient legal grounds for suspending a court-approved plan.

2. The District Court simply does not have the power to suspend, postpone or rescind the decree approved by the Circuit Court of Appeals.

3. The lower court not only lacks constitutional authority to grant the delay but the delay would set a precedent disastrous to the concept of constitutional government.

Society of 28th Names National Commander

HARRISBURG (AP)—Maj. Gen. Henry K. Fluck, commanding officer of the 28th Infantry Division, Pennsylvania National Guard, says the reorganization of the division to the new pantomimic setup may mean the closing of many armories in the state.

He held out the hope that the reorganization, by increasing the number of units, could permit continued use of the armories, despite a planned cutback in personnel.

Gen. Fluck spoke at a banquet Saturday night closing the Society of the 28th Division's annual convention.

Earlier in the day, Jacob H. Patches of Lancaster was elected national commander of the society. Delegates voted to hold next year's convention in Lancaster during July.

St. Marys Man Drowns Trying to Save a Boy

ROBBINSVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Ralph Dippold, 31, of Saint Marys, Pa., drowned in Santee Lake Sunday while trying to rescue a 14-year-old boy who later was saved.

Dippold dove into the lake after Tim Marks of Sanford, N.C. The Marks boy was pulled from the water by his brother, Billy, 16, and was revived after about 30 minutes of artificial respiration.

The Marks brothers' father was a step-son of Dippold, who was there visiting his wife.

Experts Hail Launching of Atlas Missile

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Rocket experts today hailed the first completely successful launching of a fully powered Atlas as a significant step in the nation's race to develop an operational intercontinental ballistic missile.

B. G. MacNabb, operations manager for the missile's developer, Convair Astronautics, said progress was advanced 6 to 12 months by Saturday's brilliant launching.

Every test objective was accomplished, MacNabb said, as the 55-foot Atlas streaked over the Atlantic at speeds of 15,000 miles an hour for some 2,500 miles.

It was the first successful performance of a three-engine Atlas, which has enough power to go the full 6,000-mile intercontinental range.

On July 19 the first fully powered Atlas—propelled by twin booster rockets and a sustained engine—burst apart in a violent explosion 45 seconds after launching.

In eight tests prior to that time only two engines were used in limited range shots. The Atlas test flight program began at the cape 13 months ago.

Indications were that Saturday's shoot was just about perfect. The missile's tactical type nose cone, which would house a hydrogen warhead under wartime conditions, hit the bulls-eye—a predetermined impact area in the south Atlantic.

The first full-range attempt is expected to be made within the next two months.

Pittsburgh Area Is Slowed Down By a Heavy Fog

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Fog settled over most of southwestern Pennsylvania early today, slowing traffic to a crawl in some places. Planes were unable to land or take off at the Greater Pittsburgh and Allegheny County airports because of ground fog. Some of the aircraft circled, waiting for the fog to lift. But others flew on to Cleveland and land.

State police reported the fog was general throughout Westmoreland, Butler and Washington counties, but they had no reports of traffic crashes. Traffic was moving very slowly in some spots, officers said.

It was the second day in a row that the weather had caused some concern in the Pittsburgh area. On Sunday, heavy morning rains caused flash floods in the South Hills area.

SOVIET PREMIER BACK IN RUSSIA AFTER HIS UNITY TALKS WITH RED CHINA

BULLETIN

MOSCOW (AP)—There were growing indications in Moscow today that Soviet Premier Khrushchev will object to Nationalist China's taking part in any U. N. Security Council summit conference on the Middle East. Many Western diplomats here were convinced that Nationalist China—a permanent member of the Security Council—was a top subject between Khrushchev and Chinese Communist chief Mao Tse-tung in their secret talks at Peking over the weekend. If there is any objection by the Soviet leader to Nationalist China it may come in his reply to the latest summit letters from the Western Big Three. Khrushchev's reply has been delayed by his trip to Peking and may be delayed even further by consultations in the Kremlin necessitated by his talks with Mao. The U. S., British and French embassies here reported at mid-afternoon that there had been no sign of Khrushchev's reply. Some sources raised the possibility that the Kremlin's new line on a summit conference may be voiced first by Arkady Sobolev, Russia's delegate to the U. N., in U. N. discussions on the composition, time and place of a summit meeting.

By HAROLD K. MILKS

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev returned Sunday night from unity talks in Peking with Chinese Communist chief Mao Tse-tung.

Khrushchev's latest summit reply to the West was expected today but there was no indication he would demand that Mao attend the top-level talks.

The two top men of the Communist world revealed their four-day secret meeting to a surprised world Sunday in a 1,500-word communique again demanding a summit conference without delay—the first one of many Soviet summit appeals to the West in which Mao has joined.

Khrushchev and Mao presumably spent much of their time coordinating Communist policy for the big-power meeting, now expected to be held by the U. N. Security Council in about two weeks at New York or Geneva.

But the joint communique made no demand for a seat for the Red Chinese at the same table with the Western leaders. This would present complications for the West—and delay the talks if not wreck them altogether. The United States does not recognize Red China and has been the chief force keeping Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist regime in China's permanent Security Council seat.

The Soviet Premier made the original Mideast summit conference proposal July 19, asking for a meeting of the heads of the governments of the United States, France, Britain, the Soviet Union and India along with U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

This apparent disregard of the Peking government may have raised violent objections among the Chinese Reds and forced Khrushchev to go off to Peking and placate his Chinese allies. But in their joint statement, Khrushchev and Mao expressed complete solidarity on the Middle East crisis and the international situation as a whole.

They accused the West of obstructing a summit meeting, charged the United States and Britain with "flagrant aggression" by sending troops to Lebanon and Jordan and reaffirming (Turn to Page Twelve)

Eleven People Killed In Accidents in State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
At least 11 people were killed accidentally in Pennsylvania over the weekend, eight of them on the highways.

Two young children drowned Sunday while swimming in lakes and another child was killed Friday night when a fireplace collapsed in a farm outbuilding.

The drowning victims were John McDougall Jr., 2, of Philadelphia and Jay Gage, 3, of Maine, N.Y. McDougall drowned in Silver Lake, Bucks County, and Gage in a lake near Little Meadows, Susquehanna County.

Guardsmen at Indiantown Gap Move to Firing Range

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP)—Infantry and artillery regiments of the Pennsylvania National Guard moved out to the firing ranges today as they began in earnest their two-week annual summer training.

Maj. Gen. Henry K. Fluck, commanding officer of the 28th Infantry Division, instructed his officers at a briefing yesterday to give emphasis to range firing and tactical training for the 8,000 guardsmen.

The 112th (Erie) and 109th (Scranton) infantry regiments were assigned squad and platoon tactical training along with range firing exercises by the 110th (Washington) was instructed to stay on the range.

Meanwhile, the artillery battalions were ordered to move out to the known distance ranges to begin firing in preparation for qualification firing later during the campment.

Thousands See Colorful Shrine Ceremonial Parade

Visit of Imperial Potentate To Warren State Hospital Highlight of Busy Day Here

Hundreds of persons lined Warren downtown streets Saturday as Zem Zem Temple held its colorful parade prior to the annual Ceremonial at which 140 were inducted into the organization at Beatty Junior High School Auditorium in secret and mystic rites.

Police estimated between 15,000 and 20,000 stood along the parade route as capering Shriners wound through the business district, throwing coins and candy to the crowds. Only ones not at full ease were 140 candidates, marching two by twos, who anticipated the initiation ceremony at Beatty in the evening. They were fezz-less in the afternoon.

The hundreds of Shriners began pouring into the community Friday evening and stayed on for a full-fledged celebration Saturday night. There was not a hotel reservation to be had in the entire area.

Perhaps most appreciated aspect of the entire observance was an appearance of all units at Warren State Hospital where Shriners put on one of their finest exhibitions immediately following the parade for benefit of patients.

Imperial Potentate George E. Stringfellow led the parade and was followed by Imperial First Ceremonial Master O. Carlyle Brook, Zem Zem Potentate William A. Richards, members of Zem Zem Divan and the famed "Cane Man", Harry Shawkey, whose many canes have contributed thousands of dollars to Erie Zem Zem Hospital. It was believed to be the first time an Imperial Potentate had visited a State Hospital institution.

Pleasing the crowd along the procession route were: the Zem Zem Arab Patrol of Mercer, a smart-tepping unit which walked by the flank and broke ranks intricately as they wove along the avenues. Erie County Shriner callopie, trailer-drawn, which spewed "gold dollar" bubble gum, the famed Kiltie plaid bag pipe organization displaying some of the finest legs in Shrinedom.

Chanters in the bandstand float, all mouthing words to music which was blasted to the crowd by loudspeakers triggered by a hidden tape recorded. Erie Zem Zem Arab band (officially Oriental band and Imps) with mustaches and beards of black, brown, white, iron gray and gold;

The Imps, with black leotards, displaying many a Shrine double-stomach and game leg, but undiminished plugging spirit; candidates and chartered bus of those procession-wise and already initiated; Warren County Shrine's cadillac-drawn callopie; Big Joe's fruit truck making a first appearance this year as he donated it for a "Shrine"; Buffalo Ismailia Drum and Bugle Corps playing recognizable music in black boleros, green arabic knickers, yellow socks and the traditional Shriners' black shoes;

The elephant seat atop a truck; and Venango Shriners in the final callopie serenading the crowd with handfuls of silver.

Shriners came from Venango, Erie, Elk and McKean as well as Warren County.

Candidates were outfitted at Beatty School which served as uniform headquarters for all Shriners who had forgotten equipment. Penn-Laurel Motel was stopping headquarters for all officials. Deb Lewis served the Ox Roast at Memorial Field at 5 in the afternoon, to an estimated 2,000 Nobles.

WILCOX CENTENNIAL

Wilcox is easing back to normalcy after experiencing a Centennial boom that doubled the population daily with a total attendance at all events estimated by the committee at 18,000 persons. The Centennial committee sent out more than 700 letters to former residents, of which more than 50 per cent response was reported. Preparations were started last October and a total of $4,600 was collected for the celebration from all sources. At the same time the committee gathered antiques, all possible items that could be accumulated from a century of existence. Wholehearted cooperation resulted in the complete success of the event. A survey by the committee estimated attendance as follows: Monday, 2,000; Tuesday, 4,000; Wednesday, 2,000; Thursday, 2,000; Friday, 7,000; and Saturday, 1,000. The Friday crowd was swelled by the big Firemen's Parade to establish a record for the community. Saturday's attendance dropped as a result of the tri-county firemen's celebration and parade in Kane and many of the visitors returning to their homes.

There's something about a calliope that makes a parade, and this one contributed its share of enjoyment to the crowd.—Timesphoto.

Shriner Ceremonial and Parade Outstanding Event

A RECEPTION for Nobles and their ladies was held at the YWCA on Saturday. Extreme right, is George Stringfellow, Imperial Potentate, in the receiving line, greeting guests. THE CANE MAN, Harry Shawkey, had a place of honor in the parade. The cane he's holding is one he made, and the smile he's wearing is a special one for the occasion. Reason he feels so good, he has contributed a goodly sum to the Zem Zem Children's Hospital in Erie, through the manufacture and sale of canes . . . ANOTHER ENTRY IN the parade was this beautifully made camel, and it seems to be giving Perc Cameron of Texas Lunch a big charge.

BUYS IN OHIO, JAILED
An Erie man who purchased 13 fifths of liquor in Ohio at the reduced rates in that state has had his car impounded and lost the booze. Free on $300 bond is Paul Angelotti, 21, of 2504 Crescent drive. The confiscated liquor did not bear the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board seal and under the law, Angelotti will lose his car for transporting the contraband.

FUGITIVE SPOTTED
Lyle Armstrong, 24, of Bradford, who escaped from the Chautauqua County jail at Little Valley Thursday evening, was believed spotted in the Town of Busti, N. Y., Friday. Deputies of the Chautauqua County Sheriff's Office at Mayville reported seeing a hitchhiker at Busti resembling Armstrong's description. They said the man disappeared in a wooded area when they tried to question him, and that a thorough check during the day Friday revealed no trace of the fugitive. The escaped prisoner was charged with burglary of a dairy bar near Limestone and was being held for grand jury action. Cattaraugus deputies of Little Valley say he was en route to his jail cell when he dropped a bedroll he was carrying, and fled.

SOGGY JULY
Kane Republican: July of 1958 has gone into the records as the wettest in history here with a total of 9.09 inches of rainfall. The rain fell in a series of storms, spaced by a few days of clear weather, and moved off saturated hillsides without flood damage. Precipitation was recorded on 15 of the 31 days of the month. Heaviest rainfall of the month occurred in storms extending from July 13 to July 15 when more than 3 inches was recorded, a follow up from a 1.84 fall on July 11 and 12.

SHORT "OPENING"
Kane Republican: Kane's newest business venture, the Rose Bowl Lanes, opened Thursday evening with a capacity crowd of bowlers and visitors, was closed yesterday on orders of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry until a new fire escape can be installed at the south side of the building to meet safety requirements. Work was started immediately on the installation and special equipment was being rushed here to permit re-opening of the bowling alleys at the earliest possible time. Hundreds of persons from Kane and vicinity visited the bowling center for its opening Thursday and the eight lanes with new AMF automatic equipment were busy until closing time.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va. (AP)—A Baltimore and Ohio freight train, was derailed Sunday by a wash-out that resulted from flash floods. Trainmaster Harold F. Lydick said the main-line tracks probably would not be cleared until Tuesday morning. Traffic was rerouted through Wheeling.

Some of the 30 derailed cars were set afire when a broken electric line ignited a car of inflammable naphtha. A carload of propane gas burned but did not explode. The 73-car train was bound from Cumberland, Md., to St. Louis.

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — Connie Holland, Salem's 10-year-old rock eater, has fully recovered after swallowing an estimated 200 rocks.

Her mother Mrs. Patrick Holland said a touch of pneumonia, treatment of which led a week ago to discovery of the rocks inside Connie, also has cleared up.

Connie, who says she now is called "Gravel Gertie," swallowed the rocks during the past six months because they "tasted real good."

Doctors who removed some of the pebbles and let nature take care of the rest said Connie may have suffered from a mineral deficiency.

SOCIETY

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD A. MORINE

Betty Ann Kirby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval A. Kirby of Russell, became the bride of Harold A. Morine, son of Mrs. Vera Morine, 305½ Water street, Warren, in a double ring ceremony performed in Russell Methodist church July 26.

The Rev. C. C. Headland officiated at 7:00 p. m. before an altar banked with palms and decorated with candelabra, white mums. Wedding music was provided by organist Ray Foltz and Anne Putnam, both of Russell, the latter singing "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted by her father and carrying a white Bible topped with a white orchid and ivy streamers, the bride chose a gown of camellia-white silk organza over taffeta, the voluminous skirt forming a graceful sweep train. The elongated, short sleeved bodice was appliqued with chantilly lace, touched with sequins about the scalloped sabrina neckline, and complemented with pearl-buttoned wristlets. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion fell from a lace cap which was embroidered with sequins and pearls.

Wearing white nylon velvety over yellow taffeta and carrying yellow and white cascade bouquets, the maid of honor was the bride's sister, Nancy Kirby and the bridesmaid was her cousin, Barbara Brasington. Their floor length gowns had empire bodices, accented by a taffeta fold which formed a back bow and floor length panel. Yellow picture hats and white wristlets completed their ensembles.

C. Atwell, Jr., served Mr. Morine as best man; ushering were the bride's cousin, Fredric Brasington, Russell, and Leslie Firth, Lander.

The bride's mother chose a frock of mint green silk organza, with beige accessories, the bridegroom's mother wore beige embroidered linen and white accessories.

For the reception which followed in the church parlors, appointments featured the wedding cake and candelabra flanked by yellow and white mums. Vivian Hovns managed the guest book; Mrs. Willis Phillips was at the coffee service; Mrs. Harold Granquist served punch, and Mrs. Lee Yeagle cut the cake.

A guest list of 140 included relatives and friends from Jamestown and Frewsburg, N. Y.; Miami, Fla.; Oil City, Philadelphia and Youngsville.

Following a brief wedding trip, the newlyweds are at home at 15 Conewango street, Russell. The bride traveled in a blue dacron and cotton frock, with which she wore white accessories and a white orchid.

Graduate of Northern Area High School in 1956, the bride is employed by the Manufacturer's Light and Heat Company. Mr. Morine, Warren High graduate in 1950, is an employee of C. Beckley, Inc.

Hostesses who honored the bride-elect were Mrs. J. W. Moll, Mrs. Tony Spear, Mrs. N. Manehick, Mrs. Roy Martin, Mrs. Lillian Brasington, Mrs. Vera Morine, and Joan Mahan. The rehearsal dinner was given by Mrs. Vera Morine at the Blue and White Restaurant July 25.

EXTENSION GROUP
SUGAR GROVE—Members of the Home Extension Group will meet at 12:30 p. m. Tuesday at Pike's Rocks to plan their fall and winter meetings and to elect officers for the coming year. Each member is asked to bring a tureen, the rolls and coffee to be provided.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Black, Warren RD 2, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce Elaine, to George Wohlers, Jr., also of Warren RD 2. Miss Black was a member of the Warren High Class of 1958; he is employed by Conewango township. No date has been set for the wedding.

Has Church Wedding

Trinity Memorial church was the setting at 4:00 p. m. July 27 for a beautiful Greek-Orthodox ceremony in which Kalliope Colleen Goumas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Markos Goumas of 22 Franklin street, became the bride of Andrew Mark Kalambukas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Markos Andrew Kalambukas of St. Marys.

Officiating for the double ring ceremony, in the presence of over 300 guests, was the Rev. Ehas Mentis, assisted by the Rev. George Joenithis, both of St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox church of Jamestown. The altar was banked with palms and decorated with vases of white gladioli and carnations. Carol Barrett was at the organ and Nancy Wickstrom was vocalist.

Matron of honor was the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Goldie Gioulekas of Buffalo, wearing pale aqua silk organza over taffeta and carrying a cascade of pink roses and carnations. Her princess style gown was fashioned with softly-shirred skirt, her headpiece was a leaf bandeau of aqua tulle, with pearl trim and nose veil.

Similarly attired in soft petal pink and carrying cascades of aqua roses and carnations, bridesmaids were Zoena Blagous, DuBois; Artemis Goumas, Kingston, N. Y.; Gloria Goumas, Silver Spring, Md., and Katherine Naniatus, Bradford.

The flower girl was the bridegroom's niece, Vickie Gioulekas of Buffalo, in a short dress of petal pink trimmed in white, and a pink open bonnet. Her small basket was filled with rose petals. Her brother Klee Gioulekas, carried the rings on a white satin and lace pillow made by an aunt of the bride.

Groomsmen were the best man, Mark John Goumas, brother of the bride; ushers, Mark Gust Goumas of Silver Spring; brother cousin; Kostas Gioulekas, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; and Peter Plumpis, both of Buffalo; Ted Bechakas, of Kane.

Escorted by her father, the bride was gown in white chiffon taffeta and chantilly-rose lace. Hand-clipped lace applique formed a scalloped portrait neckline, brief sleeves and gauntlets; the very full skirt had three scalloped lace panels forming a graceful train. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion fell from a delicate crown of horsehair and pearl leaves, with small rhinestone petals, and her cascade bouquet was of white roses, stephanotis and ivy. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, the bridegroom's gift, and a pearl ring, a gift from his parents, while the lace hanky she carried came from Beulah McCordie of Clearfield.

Wearing red rose corsages, the bride's mother selected Oriental blue lace over taffeta, with matching velvet hat, while the bridegroom's mother chose peacock blue, with powder blue hat. The bridegroom's godmother, Mrs. Stella Douvlos of Port Allegany, wore yellow roses with a rose lace gown.

White bells, pink and white streamers featured appointments for the wedding dinner, reception and dance held at Marconi Outing Club.

The newlyweds flew from Pittsburgh to Miami Beach for a week at the Casablanca Hotel, after which they will take a Caribbean cruise. For travel, the bride wore a white orchid on a powder blue dacron dress. After August 15, they will live at 310 High avenue, St. Marys.

Graduate of Clearfield High School, the bride was formerly employed by Pennsylvania Gas Company in Warren. Following graduation at St. Marys, Mr. Kalambukas served in the Navy, was graduated from Penn State in 1950, and is employed as a cost accountant for Speer Carbon Company in St. Marys.

Pre-nuptial parties were given by Mrs. Stella Douvlos, Port Allegany; Katie Johnson and Katherine Naniatus, Bradford; Mrs. Ruth Baumgratz, St. Marys; and girls of her office. The rehearsal party was held at the Blue and White Restaurant and at the bride's home.

Music Boosters Plan Social for Thursday

Always an eagerly-anticipated event in the summertime schedule is the annual ice cream social sponsored by the Warren School Music Boosters Club on the lawn at Beaty Junior High School.

This year's benefit function has been planned for Thursday evening of this week, with serving from 5:30 until 8:30 p. m., and August 8 designated as rain date.

Proceeds are used by Music Boosters for the purchase of band uniforms and choir robes, instruments, transportation of musicians for fall football games; and for financing of the summer band and orchestra school conducted by Director Harry A. Summers.

At approximately 7:30 p. m., Mr. Summers will present his Dragon and Dugaree Bands in a concert, marking termination of the summer school of instruction and providing entertainment for those attending the social.

NO GENTEEL STARVING IN BOHEMIAN SETTING—

She Dispelled Her Parents' Fear of 'Artist's Life'

BY AILEEN SNOODY
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(NEA)—A whisker here, a whisker there. And with a "there, that's finished" air, Gyo Fujikawa glances up from the Mother Goose-like character on her drawing board.

Her gaze moves from the design for a baby cereal package to the nooks of her Manhattan studio-apartment. Yes, she thinks, it's far from the artist's garret her parents feared she would occupy.

As a little girl in her native Los Angeles, Gyo brushed aside family warnings about the hungry life of artists.

"Looking back at it now," she says, "I guess I was quite an enigma . . . to my parents and everyone else. Instead of playing with dolls and toys like other seven-year-olds, I'd try to sketch flowers and animals in a childish sort of way. Even then I seemed to know what I wanted to be when I grew up."

GYO WAS determined to be a successful artist. It was rough going, she admits now. With a shy smile, Gyo explains that her parents were just being parents when they objected to her future plans.

"Not that they opposed me outright," she hastily adds. "But, like all practical parents they wanted to be sure that I could take care of myself and eventually become self-supporting. The life of an artist, they thought, was too uncertain. They felt that college would be better than going to art school."

Gyo Fujikawa sits at drawing board in her chic Manhattan studio-apartment, a far cry from the stereotyped garret.

Once out of high school she set her small feet in a determined path. But like many others she discovered there is more to success than talent.

"Talent is necessary, of course. But that's only part of the story,"

Gyo confides. "As in anything else, it takes a lot of hard work, determination and sincerity of purpose."

SHE DEMONSTRATED early to her parents that she was on the right track as she walked out high school doors into the L.A. art world. Winning scholarships to two art schools helped.

At Chouinard Art Institute, she studied drawing, painting, design and layout. Then her artistic thoughts turned to the land of her ancestors, Japan. She feels a year's intensive study in Japanese brush drawing is a great help now.

"Brush drawing," she explains, "is an intensely specialized type of work calling for an extraordinary amount of study, patience and precise execution."

"It is not uncommon for an artist to study his subject for days in order to observe every detail of line and form before applying brush to paper."

FREE LANCING in California followed her Japanese sojourn and then she turned her talents to the make-believe world of Walt Disney. Gyo loves drawing for and about children. And she feels the Disney technique rubbed off in many ways, especially in her animal and nature drawings.

"If an occasional poodle character gets into illustrations, it could be Suzu (Little Bell) or Kiku (Chrysanthemum). These charming rascals share her apartment and occasionally kibitz at the drawing board."

Even though Gyo eased her parents' worry of her future, she isn't going to sit back and relax.

"No artist can afford to stand still," she says. "There are too many changes taking place all the time to permit complacency and self-satisfaction."

Reunion in New York

For the left are Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Beedle, missionaries from El Salvador; Marion Feng-Chu Liang, graduating student from China; Dorothea M. Smith, missionary from Chile. The meeting took place in connection with a gathering of 170,000 delegates from 120 countries for the assembly.

As a member of the Warren delegation in attendance, Theodore Smith, local minister, reports the Watchtower Society's headquarters in New York made special arrangements with transportation companies to provide 55 planes, two steamships, many trains and buses to bring Witnesses from all parts of the world to the convention. Local delegates will bring back reports of the happenings to those unable to make the trip to New York.

Hollywood News

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Life is just one jungle after another for Audrey Hepburn.

For a girl who started her film career in sophisticated comedies, she certainly has done an about-face. Her last film, "A Nun's Story," had her sweltering in the Belgian Congo.

Now she is playing the Bird Girl in W. H. Hudson's "Green Mansions" in the Culver City jungle of MGM.

Despite the blistering weather, she said she fared well in Africa.

"Our company had a few minor ailments," she reported. "My only trouble happened after I got back to the interior shooting in Rome. Because of the dehydration, I had a kidney ailment. It was extremely painful, and I was delighted to read that someone said that kidney ailments are even more painful than childbirth. Now I'm perfectly prepared to have a dozen children."

She declined, however, to predict how soon.

Audrey, who is married to actor Mel Ferrer, commented that "A Nun's Story" has already aroused controversy, and is bound to create more. Taken from the best-selling novel, it concerns a Belgian girl who serves the church as a nun in Africa and Europe.

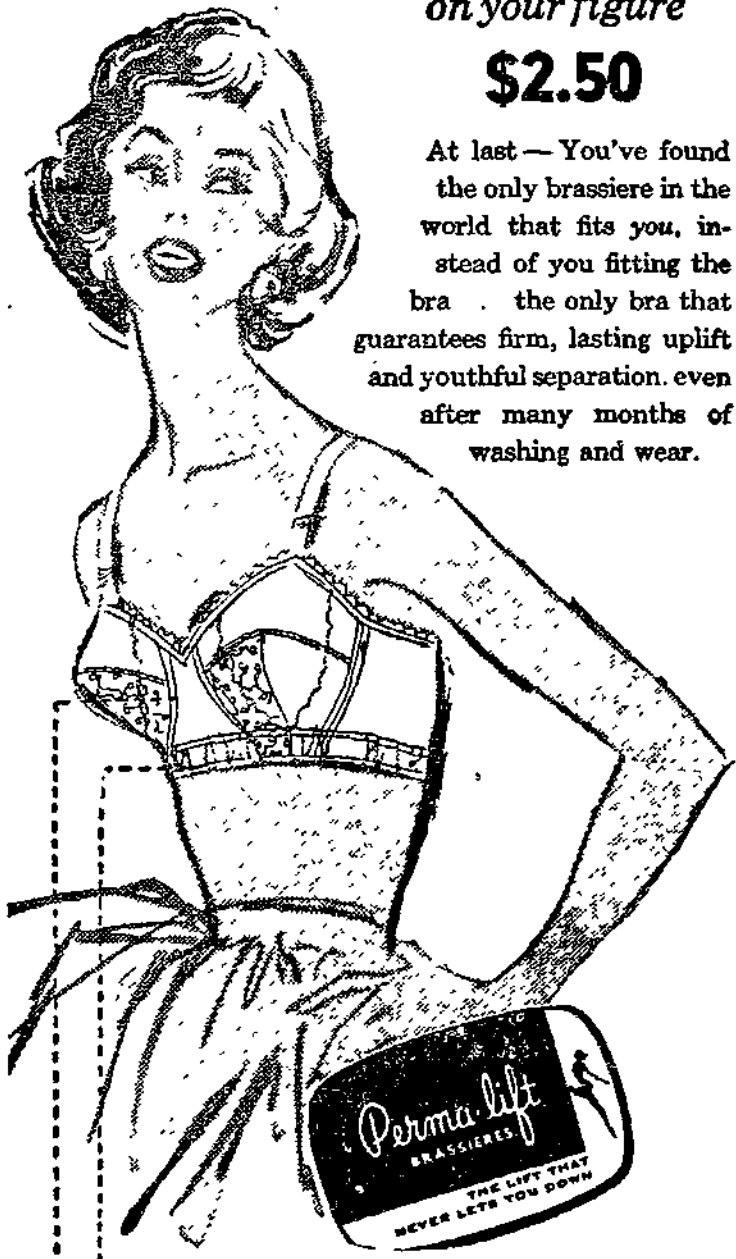

Then, as war comes, she decides to resume the secular life as a nurse.

Bring Plants In Early From Outdoor 'Vacations'

BY KAY SHERWOOD, NEA Staff Writer

If choice house plants have been summering outdoors, don't wait until the first snap of autumn to start moving them into the house. Gardening experts say that late August is a preferred time for the move in most of the nation. It gives plants ample time to become accustomed to indoor living before furnaces are turned on.

You may also want to start thinking about different ways to display plants and to use them for maximum effect.

BEFORE YOU BRING potted geraniums and the like indoors, thoroughly wash pots with a hose and inspect each plant for insects.

The new, push-button insect sprays for flowering plants makes debugging a quick and easy matter.

I'm told that the best time to spray your plants is early in the morning.

If you're going to pot plants that you've been raising in borders or low beds, select young plants with fairly small roots and use containers no larger than necessary.

Transplanting a small plant into a large container of soil may aggravate a type of damage known as waterlogging.

MOST HOUSE PLANTS like light and moist air. A good spot: a window with south, east or west exposure that's away from a radiator or stove.

There are several ways to display plants and you can spend a little or a lot on their placement.

You can find charming wrought iron garden "gates" with holders for pots to make an airy addition to a picture window.

New, tall, narrow brass and glass bric-a-brac shelves also look to me as though they'd be perfect as plant stands.

The multitude of moderately priced wicker baskets in many sizes and shapes that are on the market offer an interesting textural background for bright geraniums, daisies or marigolds.

Plants don't have to be lined up on a window sill. Baskets can be hung along the side of a window, for example. In one setting, three wicker cruet baskets hung along one side of a breakfast nook were filled with geraniums and philodendron to become a replacement for curtains.

To complete the picture, a planter filled with more of the same red and green plants stands on an extra-wide window sill.

HOUSE PLANTS need light, moisture and supplemental feedings to thrive, in most cases.

Hard-surfaced leaves such as ivy and philodendron look better when they're clean and shiny.

They'll benefit from an occasional washing, but you can shine them with harmless sprays made for the purpose of adding luster to leaves.

To keep indoor plants free of Geraniums and philodendron come indoors in ample time to adjust to household environment before chill weather arrives. Push-button sprays help keep plants healthy and shining.

Some of the common insects such as mites, aphids, mealy bugs and others, requires periodic treatment of plants with an insecticide.

Many of the insecticides intended for outdoor use contain chemicals not suitable or safe for indoor use.

Play it safe by using insect bombs formulated for house plant use.

Speakers for Pomona Meeting At Corydon To Have Varied Topics

Corydon Grange will be host for the quarterly meeting of Warren County Pomona Grange No. 10 on Thursday of this week, with an all-day program arranged.

The morning session will be called in the Fifth Degree at 10:30 a. m., with Pomona Master David Curtis presiding. Following roll call of officers, the meeting will be lowered to the Fourth Degree to welcome new members and afternoon speakers.

Paul Duntley, master of the host unit, will extend the welcome, with response by William M. Brooks, lecturer of East Branch Grange. Chairman Lucille Johnson will present for her Home Economics Hour Gale Griffith, assistant home economist for Warren county extension office, and will serve as judge for the corn muffin baking contest.

After the business session, recess will be taken and lunch will be served by women of Corydon Grange. Reopening at 1:15 p. m., Flossie Schweitzer will be in charge. There will be group singing, also devotions at 1:30 by Mrs. Garth Stoltz, and two guest speakers will be heard.

First will be Dr. David Rice, Starbuck veterinarian; next will be Edward Honhart, Warren's authority on old time rafting. The latter will use slides to illustrate his talk on "Raftsmanship Techniques of Our American Past".

Another short business session will be followed by adjournment for supper, served by the Corydon ladies. The call to order and group singing will open the evening session at 7:30 o'clock. At 8:00, Mrs. Larry Irsk will sing a semi-classical selection, also "Roses of Picard".

dy' and her five year old daughter will sing a solo. Principal business of this session will be election of officers for 1959-60, and their installation. Members are reminded the Fifth Degree will not be conferred at this time because of the State Grange meeting at Clearfield in October, but a special Pomona meeting will be called later for that purpose. Closing of the evening's session will be in the Fifth Degree.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Masterson and family left Friday for Pittsburgh where they will make their home. Mr. Masterson, an employee of the Bell Telephone Company, was recently transferred from the local office to Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Reilly have returned to their home in Venturietown after spending a week's vacation in Washington, D. C., and attending the ball games in Cleveland over the weekend.

It will interest musical friends in the area to know that Robert Plimpton of Titusville will be guest organist for a recital to be given at 4:00 p. m. Thursday in Chautauqua amphitheatre. Mr. Plimpton is a student of Robert Woodside at Chautauqua.

Trinity Memorial churchwomen interested in attending the annual program - planning conference of the Woman's Auxiliary at Chestnut Hill August 19-20 should contact Mrs. D. E. Conaway, 1469.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Salerno have returned to their home in Mt. Clemens, Mich., after spending a month with relatives in Warren.

DIAMOND GRANGE
On Tuesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, Diamond Grange at Tiona will exemplify the Third and Fourth degrees on a class of candidates. Also at this meeting, there will be judging of the Corn Muffin Baking Contest.

Adventist Gathering Has Unusual Visitor

The annual regional camp meeting of Seventh-day Adventists, held in Warren's First Baptist church over the weekend, was visited this year, for the first time, by a mobile unit of Davidian Seventh-day Adventists from headquarters in Waco, Texas, dispensing hundreds of pieces of free literature.

These unique literature bands on wheels have already made their appearance at over 50 different camp meetings held throughout the United States and Canada in the past two years.

They have attracted worldwide attention in the Adventist church by proclaiming the next major prophetic event is the finishing of the sealing of 144,000 Seventh-day Adventists as the first fruits of the harvest, followed by an anti-typical Passover in the Adventist church as foretold in the ninth chapter of Ezekiel.

It is reported visitors to the camp meeting are attracted by the large "Hear Ye The Word" signs on these mobile Bible literature bands parked near the entrance to the meetings, and many are inquiring about this "soon coming Judgment starting in the Adventist church."

ANNUAL FOF PICNIC

FOE Lodge members and their ladies will gather at Oakview Park at 1:00 p. m. Sunday, August 10, to enjoy their annual picnic and extend a welcome to out of town Eagles.

There will be games and fun in the afternoon, a chicken dinner will be served at 5:30, and it is hoped to have special music for the evening. Tickets are available at the lodge home and members are urged to secure them early.

TONER REUNION

The Toner reunion for 1958 was held August 3 at Island Park in Youngsville, with about 35 relatives in attendance from Hubbard, O.; Niagara Falls, N. Y.; North Warren, Warren, Lander, Russell, Starbuck and Irvine. Following a tureen picnic dinner, a brief business meeting was held.

SALEM LADIES AID

Ladies Aid Society of Salem EUB church will meet at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lillian Baldensperger, Hemlock street extension, with Mrs. Max Schwab and Mrs. Carl Rasmussen as hostesses. A large turnout is desired for the annual election of officers.

State Regent Honored By DAC at Luncheon

Mrs. George W. Olmsted of Ludlow, regent of Kanoaga Chapter, Daughters of the American Colonists, entertained chapter members at a luncheon at the Woman's Club Thursday honoring the state regent, Mrs. Robert F. Jones, of Hanover.

A brief business session was held following the luncheon, during which Miss Camilla Henderson and Miss Theresa Marsh were elected delegate and alternate, respectively, to the state assembly to be held November 6, 7 and 8 at the Sheraton Hotel in Philadelphia.

A new member, Mrs. Howard D. Allen, was welcomed to the chapter.

Mrs. Olmsted then introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Robert F. Jones, Pennsylvania State regent, who gave a very informative and inspiring address. She thoroughly reviewed the patriotic, historical, and educational objectives of the National Society, and stressed the many phases of the year's theme, "Freedom Is Our Heritage, Education Its Defense."

Mrs. Jones urged chapter members to work on supplemental lines, thus providing records for future generations and to carry out the year's theme in meetings and in the work of the various committees.

It was announced the next meeting of the local unit will be a picnic at the home of Mrs. D. C. Armstrong in Sugar Grove on Thursday, September 4, at one o'clock.

Plans for Jamestown Wedding of Interest

Mrs. Elva White, 18 Arnold street, Jamestown, has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Susan, to James C. Lamb, son of Mrs. Esther Lamb, also of that city, in a ceremony to take place at 2:30 p. m. August 9 in Immanuel Lutheran church. Following the ceremony, performed by the Rev. Axel V. Beckman, the reception will be held at Sunset Bay Manor at Bemus Point.

In the bridal party will be Lillian Rigby of Falconer, maid of honor; Mrs. Carol White, Detroit, Mich., and Barbara Lamb, bridesmaids; Cynthia Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Jones of Frewsburg, will be her cousin's flower girl. Eugene Barnes will serve as best man; ushering will be Ronald Spetz and Joseph Davis; ring bearer, Bruce Lundquist, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Roger Lundquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lundquist, Clearwater, Fla., will be master and mistress of ceremonies for the reception.

Several affairs given for the bride-elect include a shower by Mrs. Florence Cass and Mrs. Herbert Cave, Frewsburg, with luncheon at the Hotel William Peacock at Mayville; a shower by Miss Rigby and Mrs. Barnes; another by Mrs. Raymond Scott, Mrs. Herbert Hanson, Mrs. Carl Anderson, Mrs. Sherwood Jones, Mrs. Roger DuBois, Mrs. Paul Nelson and Mrs. Par Lundgren at Viking Temple.

Marjorie Sherman, principal at Persell School, gave a luncheon at the Conony Motel; the PTA of the same school gave a tea, and the faculty entertained at dinner at Rush's at Dunkirk.

The rehearsal eve dinner will be given at Maplehurst Country Club.

MARINE AUXILIARY

The newly-formed Marine Corps League Auxiliary will meet in the Marine Home at 7:45 p. m. Tuesday. All are asked to be on hand for a visit of the state commandant, Eugene Allamon, and the northwest divisional vice president, Mrs. Allamon.

GRACE CHURCH EVENTS

Wednesday—Midweek service.

Next Sunday, the Rev. Milton Shaffer, Pleasantville, will be guest speaker, using the topic "The Armor of God"; Sunday, August 17, the Rev. David Blasdel, Frewsburg, will preach; Aug. 24, Dr. H. H. Barr, former pastor of the parish, will be the speaker.

Announcement is made of the annual Laymen's Retreat to be held at Wesley Woods August 16-17, when an outstanding program is planned. Those interested may contact Gail Bimber for details and reservations.

Also on the summer schedule is an overnight retreat at the camp for church school officers, workers and others interested, this event to take place September 12-13.

FAMILY GATHERING

COLE HILL—The Martin and Benedict reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benedict, Ross Hill, August 3, with 80 members present to enjoy the picnic dinner served on the lawn. Mrs. Frank Martin was the oldest member present; Hugh Benedict, three months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Benedict, was the youngest.

Officers elected to serve in the coming year were: President, Mrs. Sadie McChesney; vice president, Mrs. Kay Martin; secretary, Mrs. Helen Martin. The family will hold its reunion next year at the same place.

MISSIONARY GUILD

The Girls' Missionary Guild of Calvary Baptist church had two prospective members as visitors at its meeting held in the Sunday school annex. The girls voted to cancel their sleep-out planned for August, and approved weekly dues as financial aid for their missionary project. Mrs. Elsie Hollabaugh is the group's new teacher, succeeding Miss Phyllis Small, who leaves for a teaching position in Orlando, Fla.

MIRIAM SOCIETY

Members and friends of Miriam Missionary Society of St. Paul's Lutheran church are cordially invited to attend the regular meeting in the church parlors at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday. Mrs. Robert Carlson, Mrs. Emmett Ecklund, Mrs. Walter Kiser and Mrs. Gust Sandstrom are hostesses; the offering will go to the Gustavus Adolphus Children's Home in Jamestown, N. Y.

BETHEL CLASS

Bethel Sunday School Class of First Church of the Nazarene will have a picnic supper in Crescent Park at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday, moving indoors to the church social rooms in case of rain. Each one is asked to bring a tureen and table service, beverages to be provided.

Leader Dedicates First Winter Park In Pennsylvania

COUDERSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Gov. Leader says that Americans "have come of age in their recognition of conservation and its importance."

Leader spoke Saturday at the Penn-York Woodmen's Carnival at Cherry Springs State Forest. The governor also dedicated Pennsylvania's first winter park, Denton Hill, between Coudersport and Galeton. The park, which will have skiing facilities, will open this winter.

Dave Geer and Spen Johnson, both of Jewett City, Conn., won the log rolling contest at the carnival.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION APPROVED FOR THE FIRST TIME BY THE SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA
SECOND TIME BY THE SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA
AND PUBLISHED BY THE ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OF A BILL TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

SESSION OF 1957

A JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing an amendment to section one, article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, making special provision for the taxation of private forest land.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves, that the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

That section one, article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is amended to read:

Section 1. All taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects, within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and shall be levied and collected under general laws; but the General Assembly may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes, actual places of religious worship, places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, and institutions of purely public charity, and real and personal property owned, occupied, and used by any branch, post, or camp of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, and marines; and the General Assembly may, by general laws, set up standards and qualifications for private forest reserves, and make special provisions for the taxation thereof.

Section 2. This proposed amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the general election held in November, one thousand nine hundred fifty-eight. A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 2.

Mosquito, Fog & Open Dash Board All Cause Mishaps

Parked cars, air compressors, mosquitoes and fog combined to create five injuries in several auto mishaps which occurred over the weekend.

Three persons were injured about 3 a. m. Sunday when Robert A. Wood, 28, of RD 1, Warren, failed to negotiate a curve in foggy Kinzua. He sustained lacerations, as did passengers, Mrs. Marie Wood of RD 2, Warren, and Arlie Wood of the same address.

All were treated and released at Warren General Hospital. Wood was driving south. Damages amounted to about $650.

At 2:05 p. m. Sunday David Bryan, 12, of RD 1, Warren, suffered a cut upper lip and bruised shoulder when the car in which he was riding swerved into a parked car on South Carver street.

Operator of the vehicle, Judith Ann Raub, 16, of Fredonia, Pa., told police she reached over to close the glove compartment when the mishap occurred. Damage to the parked car owned by Harold C. Pearson of Jamestown amounted to $100. Raub car sustained $600 damages.

At 10 a. m. Saturday the Irvine overhead bridge claimed another victim. Troopers said George Allison, 75, of Oil City, was heading east across the bridge when his car hit the side and bounced into a westbound machine operated by George Walter, 32, of State street, Youngsville.

Damages were about $400 to the Allison car, $600 to Walter's.

At 4:35 p. m. Friday local police investigated a 2-truck, 2-car pile-up along Pennsylvania avenue near the vicinity of Wills Cleaners.

According to police, a Keystone Construction Co. truck was pulling a compressor east on the avenue when the compressor attachment broke loose. The trailer swung into a Will's Cleaner panel truck double parked, forcing that machine into two parked cars.

Damage to parked cars was $100 to the one owned by Angeline S. Wetmore of 105½ Wetmore street and $50 to a Kaiser owned by Keystone Garage.

The compressor sustained about $10 damages, the Will's truck, about $200.

At 8:12 a. m. Saturday, John C. Urbasit, 17, of North Warren, told police he was attempting to swat a mosquito as he drove east on lower Jackson street near Conewango avenue. He took his eyes off the road and his car took off toward a utility pole.

Damages were a temple, nose and lip cut for John, $400 to the car.

At 2:20 p. m. Sunday, Mrs. Eugene A. Arnold of 410 Fourth avenue told police she was checking traffic behind her in the rear view mirror when her car drifted into a parked car owned by Norbert E. Weidert of 409 Fourth avenue. Damages were estimated at $25 to the parked car, about $75 to Mrs. Arnold's.

Former Kane High

Star Places Second

An Associated Press report from Warsaw, Poland, reports that Ed Moran, James City, former Kane High track star and now Penn State runner, placed second Friday in the 1,500-meter event at United States-Poland dual track and field meet. Zbigniew Orzwal of Poland, crossed the finish line first in 3:42.7. Jim Grelle of Portland, Oregon, was third. Moran was timed at 3:42.32, Grelle, 3:43.4.

Stateline Course Has Big Pileup In 50-Lap Event

Worst mass pile-up in the history of Stateline Speedway made a twisted mess of many of the late models during the 50-lap Mid-Season Championship feature race Saturday night. Virtually all the 30-car field was involved in the seventh lap tangle, except lead car and one or two which were trailing the field.

Miraculously, no one was seriously injured in the chain-reaction smash, although several drivers suffered minor bruises or sprains, including Brockway's Squirt Johns—a heavy favorite to win—whose back was wrenched when another car slammed his stopped race car behind him.

Oddly, enough, one of the cars which precipitated the mass tangle came on to ultimate victory after the re-start. It was Jamestown's Bud Sauner, who was fighting for second spot with fellow townsman Bud Fanale when the two got locked together, starting the backstretch roadblock. Sauner escaped major damage to eventually take the lead and hold it for his first feature win of the season, plus a handsome trophy proclaiming him Mid-Season champion.

With both John Seely and Squirt Johns, former point leader and runner-up, respectively, knocked out of the race in the pile-up, Wellsville's Jim Patrick emerged as new point leader with a second place finish in the big race. Bidding his time until the halfway mark, Patrick put on the pressure for the last 25 laps to eliminate each car ahead except Sauner's mount, which still had a lead of several car-lengths as the checkered flag fell.

Titusville's Eb Young and Paul Wilson of Jamestown crossed the line in third and fourth spot respectively, and thereby moved themselves a step up the point ladder in Stateline's top ten. Wilson, just out of the hospital where he had undergone minor surgery, nearly washed himself out of the competition in an earlier race—the evening's first semi-final—when he slid into a stalled car and tore out entire right side of his race car.

Emory Mahan, Warren, running fifth until next to the last lap, broke an axle and had to settle for seventh spot. Dean Schimp of Bradford and Bud Gardner of Clarendon edged him in the last go-round.

To give the many casualties of Saturday night's race a second chance at the double points and large purse, Stateline officials has announced another 50-lapper August 16, with $2,000 again riding the outcome. This program will commemorate two former racing mechanics from Onondale, Snuffy Ruth and Dave Burch, who lost their lives in a highway crash. A full card of races will be presented next week of course.

BASEBALL BY THE CLOCK?

By 7 p. m. Sunday, nearly 32,000 fans had seen almost 22 fairly hectic innings of baseball in Forbes Field. Still it seemed a shame to call the festivities off with the score tied and the contest still in doubt.

Across the state, in Philadelphia, more than 17,000 fans suffered a similarly frustrating experience. The second game of the Philly doubleheader was suspended because of Pennsylvania's 7 p. m. Sunday curfew law. It was the fourth time this season that curfew has overtaken the Phils.

This law has existed since 1934, when the Legislature let the voters decide whether to change the Blue Laws to permit Sunday baseball. Voters in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia said yes, but the 7 p. m. curfew was included.

That makes the two Pennsylvania cities the only big league towns with a Sunday curfew. Why is it that baseball for profit is legal at 6:59 p. m. and illegal at 7:01 p. m.? Fans in the Pennsylvania cities are not required to turn off their radios at 7 p. m. on Sundays when they are listening to games being played in Chicago or St. Louis. Is there any real difference?

The law seems to us a useless annoyance. We would like to see local authorities join the Philadelphia City Council asking the Legislature and the Governor to lift the Sunday baseball curfew.

—An editorial taken from Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

NEW PEAK TO CONQUER

Yanks Seem Unable to Turn Winner in Sunday Contests

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Editor

No need to break up the Yankees, friends. All ya' gotta do is get them to skip the rest of the week and play on Sunday.

It's there in black and white, a 10-12 record with four doubleheader efforts to show for the Sunday efforts of the big, bad New Yorkers who make a farce of the American League Monday through Saturday.

Even Manager Casey Stengel, when he isn't cracking wise about the National League, says: "Don't know what it is. Maybe I oughta just manage on weekdays and take Sunday off."

Chicago's climbing White Sox, now only a half game out of second place, had Sunday's outing against the runaway A.L. leaders. They cut the Yanks' margin to 15½ games with 3-1 and 4-0 victories behind right-hander Dick Donovan and Ray Moore.

Boston's Red Sox took advantage of the Yankee losses to pull back into second place, shattering Cleveland's seven-game winning streak 3-2 and 4-2. The sweep dumped the Indians from second to fifth.

Donovan, winning his fifth straight for an 8-10 record, fired a three-hitter against the Yankees in the opener and outdueled Whitey Ford (13-5). Moore (7-3) was just as stingy, scattering five hits for his second shutout both against the Yanks and his third complete game all three against the Yanks. Johnny Kucks lost it.

Ted Williams' two-run homer in the ninth won the first game for the Red Sox as Murray Wall won in relief over Gary Bell. The Sox whipped Ray Narleski in the second game.

Lennie Mathews Meets Steve Ward In Tonight's Bout

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lenny Mathews, unbeaten Philadelphia lightweight, with 12 knockouts in 13 bouts, breaks into the main event class tonight at St. Nicholas Arena in New York against Steve Ward of Hartford, Conn.

Young Mathews made quite a hit on a recent Madison Square Garden card when he knocked out Bobby Rogers in the semifinal.

Ward recently fought a draw with Ludwig Lightburn and is rated a skillful opponent for the promising youngster from Philadelphia.

After the Monday show at St. Nick's, to be seen on television (D Mont) in some sections, the ancient arena will close Aug. 25 but that is not definite.

Sonny Liston, formerly of St. Louis but now fighting out of Philadelphia, will try to stretch his winning streak to 12 Wednesday at the Chicago Stadium when he takes on Wayne Bettea of New York in a TV (ABC) bout.

Ace Armstrong, another unbeaten boxer, moves into his first Garden main event Friday against Rory Calhoun, a rough middleweight from White Plains, N. Y.

The 10-rounder will be carried on network (NBC) radio and TV.

Jimtown Moose Whip Art Metal by 8 to 1

High school product Chuck Dilts scattered five hits over as many innings in hurling his Jamestown Moose teammates to an 8-1 decision over luckless Art Metal in an Intercity League game in Municipal Stadium Friday night.

Lodgemen clubbed Art Metal starter Fred Crespy for 10 hits during the seven innings he worked.

Manager Spike Nelson's winners stowed the game away in the first inning. Metalites averted a shutout by scoring their lone run in fourth inning on a walk.

Tonight in the Stadium, Marlin-Rockwell and Moose will clash at 7 in a League battle.

Looks Like Giants Have Had It as National Challenger

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Nnd so der Braves haben totgeschlagen der Giants!

Freely translated, as any German-bred, jumpin' for joy Milwaukee burgher will tell you, it means the San Francisco Giants have probably had it as a National League challenger.

By combining a six-game winning streak of their own with a six-game Giants losing streak, Milwaukee's champion Braves have opened up a five-game lead in the NL.

The 4-2 and 5-0 victory Sunday at County Stadium gave Milwaukee a four-game week-end sweep of the Giants.

The Giants now lead third place Pittsburgh by only two games after the Pirates' third successive shutout victory over the hapless St. Louis Cardinals, 2-0, in the first of two scheduled games at Pittsburgh. The Pirates led 2-0 in the fifth inning when the second game collided with Pennsylvania's 7 p. m. curfew.

Chicago and Philadelphia split, the Cubs outscoring the Phils 12-10 after the Phils had won the opener 8-2 behind Ray Semproch. Los Angeles and Cincinnati also split, enabling the Dodgers to vacate last place in favor of the Cards. Los Angeles won the first game, 8-6 in 10 innings, and dropped the nightcap 3-1.

Speaking of Sports

New York Yankees' Manager Casey Stengel labelled San Francisco Giants a "freak" team. He said it is impossible to build a club from the bottom to a pennant in one year. Casey spoke at a luncheon honoring him on his 68th birthday.

Stengel, a native Kansas City son, told a group of 250 of his old friends and associates that they should have patience with the Athletics, "who are doing a sensible job of rebuilding." He warned the A's not to expect a miracle in one year and, in following that line of thought, cast his lefthanded remark at the Giants.—AP

Moore Blanks the Yanks for Second Straight Victory

CHICAGO (AP)—"Just can't throw those guys any fast balls," drawled Chicago White Sox pitcher Ray Moore Sunday after he beat the New York Yankees for the third time this season and shut them out twice in a row.

Moore blanked the American League leaders 4-0 on five hits after teammate Dick Donovan whipped them 3-1 in the first game on only three hits.

"All five hits they got off'n me were on fast balls," groaned Moore. "Hey, Dick, what they hit off'n you?"

"Curve ball, slider, fast ball," answered Donovan.

"Well, guess they do get hits on other pitchers," said Moore, whom the Yankees haven't beaten yet this season.

What's the reason for this success?

"Guess, I'm just lucky," said Moore, who has a 7-3 record and only three complete games—all against New York.

"I've been pitching good, but against these other teams something always seems to happen."

Sox Manager Al Lopez had a different explanation.

"He's a good pitcher with real good stuff," said Lopez. "I guess he's one of those guys who does better against tougher competition."

RACING

OCEANPORT, N.J.—A Gitter ($3,600) gained some votes for the 3-year old filly title with a length and a half victory in the $36,500 Monmouth Oaks at Monmouth Park.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y.

Cohoes ($4,500) chalked up his second stakes victory in a week in taking the $45,700 Whitney at Saratoga.

Wind and Protests Hampers Snipe Races

Snipe National Senior Championships on Lake Chautauqua were conducted yesterday afternoon, Crosby Memorial series, on a rough road as wind and protests caused considerable delay and frustration.

Terry Whittemore of Quassa-paug, Conn., led the Black and Orchid Fleet across finish line in yesterday's third race, only event of the day in which no protest was lodged.

Jerry Thompson of Long Beach, Calif., was leader of Blue and Yellow Fleet's race, second of the afternoon and, in this one, Howie Fletcher of Olcott Yacht Club lodged a protest which still is being deliberated.

Juniors attempted to get in their second race of the regatta after Seniors finished action but the wind failed them after one and a half laps of the triangle and they'll start all over again today. Junior sailed their only race Friday.

Two senior races are scheduled today, first this morning at 10 and the second at 2:30 p. m. After five qualifiers are completed, top 24 boats will stage five races for championship.

Spa Has Produced Best Runners Since Civil War

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y.—(NEA)—If tradition means anything in the pari-mutuel version of racing it is having its last fling at the ancient Union Ave. course in Saratoga.

Here the sport is still conducted in a country setting. While there has been some modernization, the rickety old stands accommodate no more than 7,000. The average attendance is but 15,000, and you get the feeling that the thoroughbred is more important than the right mutual ticket. People get closer to the steeds being saddled under trees in the spacious paddock. The Saratoga track may be old-fashioned, but the finest runners have come from the Spa since the Civil War. It is here that you get the first solid line on the two-year-olds, so it is only natural that the big horses of the next two or three years first attract wide attention on this ancient strip. Numerous wealthy owners reserve their juveniles for Saratoga.

STARTING WITH THE FLASH, there are seven historic stakes for two-year-olds during the 24-day meeting ending Aug. 27. There are the sporting Saratoga Special, Grand Union Hotel, Sanford and The Hopeful and the Schuylerville and Spinaway, the latter two for fillies.

The Hopeful at 6½ furlongs—this trip down for Aug. 23—has turned out the big three-year-olds of the next season and handicappers since long before Man o' War romped off with it in 1919. Out of this revered scramble in more recent years came Bimelech, Whirlaway, Devil Diver, Favot, Middle-ground, Battlefield, Native Dancer, Nashua and Needles. Early indications are that this could be an excellent two-year-old crop, the leadership at the moment having to go to Christopher T. Cheney's First Landing. This bay son of Turn-To and Hildene looked like he would go in accounting for The Juvenile at Belmont Park and Great American at Jamaica.

WATCH YOUR STEP COULD be the first stickout son of Citation. The Circle M Farm colt beat Brookfield Farm's Intentionally and Llangollen's Restless Wind in record-equaling time in the Sapling. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner Jr. have a nice colt in California in Irish-bred Tony Lee, which pricked his ears hitting the wire in five straight victories, three of them stakes.

With the first half dozen of this year's three-year-olds sidelined, the two-year-olds are badly needed.

The annual yearling sales attract buyers to Saratoga and the three-year-olds and older horses are far from neglected. There are stakes on nearly every racing day and Bold Ruler and Gallant Man, both among those present, may collide once more.

JIMMY KILROE, SLICKEST of the handicappers, takes over at Saratoga. The racing secretary revealed that he had a dream—his conscience was bothering him, trainers claimed—the night before Bold Ruler, under 136 pounds assigned him by Kilroe, ran seventh to Cohoes in a shocking Brooklyn Handicap at Jamaica.

"I dreamed Cohoes beat Bold Ruler, which was in a dead heat for second," Kilroe said.

When the story was told after Cohoes, carrying only 110 pounds, had won, a horse player yawned.

"What's so good about that?" he asked. "Bold Ruler didn't run second."

Jimmy Kilroe, you see, has a job that pleases almost nobody.

Fayette County Democrats Will Aid McGonigle

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Four men who have been active in the Democratic Party in Fayette County are supporting Republican candidate Arthur McGonigle for governor.

The four, who showed up Saturday at a Republican picnic at the McGonigle home and several other GOP candidates, told friends they are supporting McGonigle.

The four are John W. Rankin, a past state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and former Fayette County commissioner; Dr. H. D. Miner, former Connellsville mayor; C. J. Newhard, a Uniontown resident who backed Lt. Gov. Roy Furman in his unsuccessful bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination; and Charles Dean, who was Furman's campaign manager in Fayette County.

Leaders of the Democratic Party organization in the county said their organization is solidly behind Pittsburgh Mayor David L. Lawrence, the Democratic nominee for governor.

McGonigle, a Reading pretzel manufacturer, said in a speech at the picnic that "anyone who tells you that businessmen are mortal enemies of labor, or that business agriculture and labor are mortal enemies, is doing a disservice to you and Pennsylvania."

Aging Moore Meeting King in Reno Tonight

RENO, Nev. (AP)—An aging and overweight Archie Moore gets his fifth chance tonight to flatten Reno heavyweight Howard King and set a new world's record of 127 knockouts.

The light-heavyweight champion has defeated King in four other 10-round, non-title bouts, but he's never kept the younger man down for the full count.

A pudgy 202-pounds, Moore says he respects the 24-year-old King's ability to stay in the ring with him, but promises he'll end all that in their fight at Moana Ball Park.

Moore gives his age at 41 while the records peg it at 44.

CORYDON

CORYDON—Mrs. Grace Homer was hostess for the dinner meeting of the Methodist Ladies Aid Society; President GlenDine LaDow conducted the business session, and a social hour followed. Present were J. K. Crooks, Mrs. Nelson Crooks, Mrs. LaDow, Mrs. Marshall Gardner, Mrs. W. C. Marshall, Mrs. J. J. Learn, Mrs. O. W. Benton and grandson, Mrs. M. A. Kraft, Mrs. Mabel Russ and Mrs. L. J. Whyte.

Missionary Society, Church of the Nazarene, met with Mrs. Clarence Mighels, Frewsburg road, a work-meeting following the tureen dinner. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crooks, Eugene Crooks, Mrs. Donald Goddard, Corydon; Rev. Viola Burch, Ononville; Mrs. Whelpley, Frewsburg. The next meeting is expected to be held with Mrs. Sara Goddard.

The following persons were in Buffalo to attend the Lawrence Welk Show at Memorial Auditorium: Mrs. Marshall Gardner, Corydon; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gustafson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carlson and Eleanor Rogalski, Falconer.

Clayton Homer, with his son and daughter, of Oil City, visited recently with Mrs. Grace Homer.

Vera Ruth has been visiting relatives in North East and Erie.

Miss Krouse, visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sauers, has returned to Sarasota, Fla.

Two From Brookville Hurt in Ohio Accident

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP)—Two Brookville, Pa., brothers were reported in fair condition at Sarnan Hospital today with injuries suffered in a truck-auto crash that killed four of their relatives.

The brothers are William Francis 13, and his brother, Thomas 11. Also in fair condition at the hospital is Nancy Alexander, 5, only survivor of a family of five. Killed in the crash were Nancy's father, Louis G. Alexander, 30, of Mount Clemens, Mich.; his wife, Dorothy, 23, and their other daughters, Lois, 8, and Georgia, 7.

Day of Tradition For Baseball at Cooperstown, N.Y.

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—Baseball had its day of tradition and nostalgia today during annual ceremonies at the Hall of Fame Museum.

Along with the usual major league exhibition game, dedication of a new hall to house the bronze plaques of the elected members featured the activities.

The morning dedication was scheduled to take place before many dignitaries, including Gov. Averell Harriman, baseball commissioner Ford Frick, American League President Will Harridge, National League President Warren Giles and several of the 31 living members of the Hall of Fame.

After the dedication, the group turned to Doubleday Field for the annual exhibition game, this time matching the Philadelphia Phillies with the Washington Senators.

For the first time in several years, no new members were inducted.

WEDDING LICENSES

Latest local couple to apply for permission to wed from Register and Recorder Gurney Ball is: Navy Recruiter Pete Prelog and Eleanor Highhouse, both of Warren.

WORTHLESS CHECKS

Russell M. Saar, 23, of 129 Albany street, Buffalo, is still in Warren County jail today attempting to make restitution for two worthless checks he passed to downtown merchants a week earlier. He pleaded guilty to the charge when arraigned before Peace Justice Martha Lawson Saturday. About $25 is involved. Police said the man had been hanging around town the past fortnight "acting suspicious." Apparently with reason.

GRAND JURY

The Grand Jury today returned a true bill in the case of the Commonwealth versus Herman Rockwell, charged with failure to stop in the event of an accident. In the case of the Commonwealth versus Ernest N. Barr, charged with operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent, a true bill was also returned. In the case of the Commonwealth versus Richard Jordan, charged with malicious mischief, not a true bill. The bills were filed this noon.

ARSON SUSPECTED

Arson is suspected in the destruction by fire of a two-story camp owned by Leon Lauffenberger, located in Glade township just north of the Complanter Gun Club, some time Friday night or early Saturday morning. The fire was discovered about four o'clock Saturday morning by Dorothy Lauffenberger. It is believed by investigating officials that the camp was robbed of valuables before it was set on fire, following a pattern that has been suspected in similar depredations in the area recently. The arson investigator from the State Police barracks in Erie, has been called into the case.

PATIENT IMPROVING

According to reports the condition of Miss Susan Swanson, 513 Conewango avenue, hurt in an accident in Conewango avenue extension Thursday evening resulting in fatal injuries to 11-year-old Steven Zurcher, is reported improving at the Warren General Hospital excepting for the fact that she has not regained her vision. She sustained a painful cut over the left eye and temple, causing her to lose her sight in both eyes, which, it is hoped, is temporary. Officials spent a busy weekend investigating the accident. Saturday evening at seven o'clock a coroner's jury was impaneled. Whether it will be reconvened later will depend upon developments in the case. The jury is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Young, John Fenstermacher, Burdette Weiler, Barney Pasquino and Roy Schwab.

Nationalist China Is Anticipating Trouble

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Some quarters in Nationalist China to day predicted trouble in the Far East as an outcome of the meeting between Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Red China's Mao Tse-tung.

Some Chinese Nationalists said the Red leaders discussed plans for a diversionary action in this part of the world.

They suggested that such an action would enable Khrushchev to demand a summit conference on the Far East and insist that Red China as one of the parties directly concerned, be represented.

The Nationalists said such action could be an attack on the Nationalist island outposts off the Red China coast or against Formosa itself.

DELUXE APPOINTS MIDWEST MANAGER

PHILIP J. GREEN

R. H. Hauser, General Sales Manager, DeLuxe Metal Furniture Company, announced today, the appointment of Philip J. Green as the Midwest Sales Manager.

Mr. Green resides in LaGrange Park, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago. "Phil" attended college in Chicago and then was appointed as sales manager for Lever Brothers Company. Later, he took up the same position with National Chemical and Manufacturing Company. Mr. Green, most recently general sales manager for Unistrut Service Company of Illinois (DeLuxe representatives) is very familiar with the complete DeLuxe line of products. It is felt that Phil will be a most valuable asset to the distinctive national DeLuxe sales organization.

The states included in Phil's territory are: North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan.

Best wishes and success to a very industrious young man.

chronic economic underdevelopment. Eisenhower reportedly feels that such a high-level meeting could not accomplish much, but approves the idea of a meeting of foreign ministers.

Brazilian leaders now figure that it may take at least a year to lay the groundwork for any inter-American high level meeting. Dulles and the Brazilians probably will toss the idea to the Organization of American States for future action.

Dulles said that during his two-day visit he would confer with the Brazilian President and Foreign Minister Francisco Negro de Lima "regarding the grave issues of indirect aggression, and of war and peace."

Among subjects expected to be discussed are Communist penetration in South America and Soviet overtures to renew diplomatic and commercial relations with Brazil.

Rider in Souped-up Merry-go-Round Killed

MIDDLETOWN, N.Y. (AP)—A souped-up merry-go-round called the "Comet" hurled two riders into a crowd at the Orange County Fair Sunday night.

One, Francis Kearney, 18, Monticello, N.Y., died about three hours later at the Middletown Sanitarium.

The other, George Van Aken, 30, Middletown, suffered a possible fractured spine. He was reported in critical condition today at the sanitarium.

The Comet has 10 cars suspended from cables which rotate around a pole. State police said the cars were whirling at about 45 miles an hour when a cable attached to the Kearney-Van Aken car snapped.

The two riders hit a concrete sidewalk at least 30 feet away and struck four persons, who suffered shock and bruises.

Claim Labor Leaders Trying for Wage Tax

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Republican State Committee says labor leaders are trying to "crank a wage tax down the throat" of union members.

A weekend statement named the "Big Four" generally and Joseph L. McDonough, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, specifically.

The "Big Four" in Pennsylvania labor are Harry Boyer, CIO; Charles Sludden, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and Lester Thomas, United Mine Workers, and McDonough.

The committee quoted the Pennsylvania Federationist, a journal published by the PFL, as saying Republican legislators were wrong in voting against a wage tax proposal in 1957.

from Lebanon and Jordan and accused the Western powers of planning new military moves against Iraq—in spite of the fact that both have now recognized Iraq's revolutionary government.

An administration official said that if a summit meeting is held Eisenhower will make "a series of concrete and constructive proposals" for dealing with the problems of the Middle East. The task of working out these proposals was handed over to a group of State Department policy makers under the chairmanship of G. Frederick Reinhardt, counselor of the department.

Secretary of State Dulles left Sunday for a long-planned visit to President Juscelino Kubitschek of Brazil. He is due back Thursday.

At the airport, he told reporters all he knew about the Khrushchev-Mao meeting was what was said in the communiqué.

Officials said that the theme of Eisenhower's planning for a possible meeting with Khrushchev is opposition to the use of "indirect aggression" by nations seeking to upset governments they do not like.

One proposal under consideration here is creation of a U. N. watchdog committee to check on international broadcasting and make reports when any country begins radio agitation for the overthrow of a foreign government.

Another is the formation of a standing group of observers to go into any threatened country and throw a mantle of United Nations protection around it.

Also being considered is a possibility of United Nations measures to control the flow of arms into Middle Eastern countries. Washington is against a flat embargo but would like to reduce arms shipments into the area to a minimum.

ed their "fraternal relations of friendship, all-round cooperation and mutual assistance." Mao seconded Khrushchev's previous demand for the immediate withdrawal of U. S. and British troops from Lebanon and Jordan.

The communiqué as usual blasted the "aggressive imperialist bloc headed by the United States monopoly groups" as the enemy of "peace, democracy, national independence and socialism."

There was also a veiled warning that the United States may have more trouble on its own doorstep. China and the Soviet Union, it said, "give firm support to the just struggles of the peoples of the United Arab Republic, the Republic of Iraq, and the other Arab countries, as well as to the national independence movements of the peoples in Asia, Africa and Latin America."

The statement also contained the standard demand for international disarmament, prohibition of atomic weapons and their testing, and "elimination of all military blocs and all military bases on foreign soil."

fighting if Chamoun or some delegate of his went to the summit for Lebanon.

There were some suggestions that the President designate Shehab as the Lebanese delegate. But the new President is a military man, inexperienced in international politics, and already has his hands full getting ready to take over the government. For that matter Chamoun's departure from the country probably would endanger his precarious hold on the presidency.

Other Middle East developments: Robert Murphy, U.S. deputy undersecretary of state serving as President Eisenhower's Middle East conciliator, returned from a 24-hour stay in Baghdad and prepared to leave for Cairo Tuesday to see President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

Murphy said he was impressed by the determination of Iraq's new Premier, Abdul Karim Kassem, and his ministers to maintain their independence in foreign policy and not to be dominated by anyone. He said his reception was extremely cordial and friendly and that he thought the U.S. recognition of the Iraqi regime, had allayed any suspicion the Baghdad leaders might have had of Washington's intentions toward them.

Murphy added that he thought it would be some time before the Iraqis decided whether to remain in the Baghdad Pact, of which they are the only Arab member.

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Absence may not make the heart grow fonder, but it does make you appreciate some things.

Returning home recently after being almost two months in England, Scotland and France, I found that among the things I appreciated was—and don't smile—my television set.

Mind you, I don't appreciate much in the way of programs appearing on the set in this deadly dull summer season. But I do appreciate the thorough and absorbing way the networks have been reporting the news in these recent days of crisis.

News from an American viewpoint is something an American—or at least this American—misses most in Europe. In the larger cities, thank heaven, the Paris Tribune or an air mail edition of the New York Times usually is available. But we always seemed to be somewhere far back in the hills when the hunger for news assailed us.

There are some excellent newspapers published in Britain and France. The Manchester

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued advancing in early trading today. Copper, aluminum and steel shares were in demand.

Gains ranged from fractions to a point or so. There were a few small losers.

Warren Ambulance Service Is No More

Warren Ambulance Service of 109 Market street has ceased operations, according to Mrs. Keith Nulph, head of the former concern.

The service was started about two years ago when local funeral directors stopped the profitless ambulance business. Since that time volunteer units from North Warren and Youngsville have answered most calls around Warren.

June 2 was the last day of operations for Warren ambulance concern.

Motorist Loses Leg Retrieving Hub Cap

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—A hubcap dropped off as James Riste, 32, drove over a railroad track today. When Riste got out to retrieve it, his foot caught under a rail.

Seconds later a Grand Trunk passenger train roared past bound for Muskegon from Detroit. Riste's left leg was severed below the knee.

He hobbled to his car and drove six blocks to a hospital.

Riste was reported in fair condition after surgery.

Wrightsville

WRIGHTSVILLE—Connie F. Higgins is a patient in Corry Memorial Hospital, instead of Warren General, as was previously reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Durin are parents of a son, Dennis Arnold, born July 26.
